district of Henrico, a case of smallpox, in full swim on the corpus and countenance of one John Johnson, a negro resident of Richmond. Liberal reward from the county board of supervisors if same is not returned. Big reward if finder will hand the disease and the owner over to the health authorities.

Such was the wording of a poster on the bulletin in front of the Henrico courthouse yesterday afternoon. The negro, Johnson, is somewhere at large in the corporate limits of this city, having fled from the county night before last to escape arrest and a lock-up in the post-house.

Chairman W. B. Frayser, of the county board of supervisors, sprung the startling

VIRGINIA—CHANCERY COURT OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND.

Be it known, That the Pabst Brewing Company, a Wisconsin corporation, is engaged in manufacturing, bottling and selling lager beer, and in particular is engaged in bottling and selling lager beer, and in particular is engaged in bottling and selling in bottling and selling in bottling and selling in bottling and selling in bottling and other cities in the Sitate of Newport News, Norfelk, Richmond and Lynchburg and other cities in the Sitate of Virginia, and on the bottles so used in the said business in the said State of Virginia the Pabst Brewing Company uses the following trade mark and device—to-wit:

(1) On the side of the bottle, blown in the glass, a trade mark or device consisting of an inner circle about one and three-eighths inches in diameter, enclosing a hop levif with letter "B" superimposed at the center of the leaf, and outside of the inner circle and concentric with it another circle about two and one-fourth inches in diameter, there being between the inner and outer circles the word "Pabst" at the top and the word "Milwaukee" at the bottom.

(2) Another trade mark or device on the side of the bottle and blown in the glass is millar to that first described and in addition encircling the lower outside of the outer, or two and one-fourth inch circle, the words "Richmond Branch" blown in the glass.

Chairman W. B. Frayser, of the county board of supervisors, sprung the startling information at the special meeting of the board yesterday afternoon, and there were nervous interjections during his recital, asking if he had seen or touched the victim of the dread pox sores. He stated that he had not, but had been given the information by Dr. G. T. Collins, of the county board of health. Order was restored while he entertained the members and spectators with the thrilling and hair-raising story.

Chairman Frayser said the man had left the city a week or so aga, and had gone to his father's place in the county, just below Fulton, in the neighborhood in which Mr. Frayser resides. At that time he had not the slightest suggestion of a miniature volcanic cruption about him. The disease making itself apparent, the year had stead to a gone as he could.
